

Please keep the no-call list just as it is. I do not wish to receive any phone solicitations by banks or financial institutions after cancelling an account. I believe that once an account is cancelled financial institutions should respect that decision by not calling.

Thank you,
Mona Nelson